

Dr Leila Masson

M.D., MPH, FRACP, FACNEM, DTMH
Paediatrician & Lactation Consultant

Sticky tape test for pinworms

Do this test right after your child wakes up.

Take a clear piece of clear sticky tape, make a loop, so one side sticks to your finger and press the sticky side to the area around the anus several times. Then put the tape into a small see through plastic bag.

Check in bright light for small eggs – they look like small sesame seeds.